Mr. Sea,

In your October 27 email, you indicate that you had provided "attachments" to your comments and that the "text" of your comments would be forthcoming. We did not receive the additional text as you had indicated.

We are in the process of finalizing our Section 106 package for the Advisory Council on Historic Preservation and would like to verify whether you sent text/comments in addition to the "attachments" in the previously allotted scoping period (including the additional two days you were granted by Mr. Linton). If you had previously sent, can you please resend?

For your information, we are including your oral comments, and your pleadings from the adjudicatory process in the package we are preparing for the ACHP.

Dear Mr. Blevins,

Attached are the attachments to my comments on DEIS NUREG-1834.

I've had two problems. One is getting the file to transmit given the large file size. I've been trying to send most of the night but as I have a dial-up connection only, it's very difficult and keeps quitting. Please be understanding.

Second, I have two other imposing deadlines this week....the appeal of the ASLB ruling in the USEC case was due Monday and new contentions as per the ASLB ruling are due very shortly. I did call on Monday and received an extension but am afraid it will take another day to get my full comments in. Attached are the attachments only, not the text. If for some reason you cannot accept the text, I still wish the attachments submitted...they are self explanatory as they contain mainly letters from others pertaining to historic and cultural resource issues.

I will send the text ASAP.

You will note that the first item is a DEIS comment from Professor Robert Proctor at Stanford. Unfortunately, Dr. Proctor made the mistake on Monday of e-mailing his comment to me instead of to NRC, and I did not realize it until Tuesday, when he was already on a plane to Germany. Therefore please accept his testimony as timely. His e-mail address is included. Other contact info. can be provided if necessary.

Thanks for your consideration,

Geoffrey Sea
